MISSING VETERAN A SUICIDE IN BLUFFS

William Bishop, 89 Years Old, Missing Since Sunday, Found in an Apple Orchard.

CUTS ARTERY IN HIS WRIST

Leaning against an apple tree in the N. P. Dodge orchard on Woodbury avenue, in Council Bluffs, as though he was calmly appreciating the natural beauty of his surroundings, the body of William Bishop, 89-year-old civil war veteran, was found yesterday.

He had taken his life by cutting an artery in his left arm with a razor which was found at his side.

Ever since Sunday the police in Omaha and surrounding cities had been carrying on a search for the old man, who left his home at 423 Franklin street early in the afternoon.

When he left his relatives feared foul play, as they declared that he was mentally sound and that they could think of no other motive for his absence.

He had considerable money on his person and several unexpired pension certificates. They thought that he might have been found by unscrupulous men who beat and robbed him.

A reward of $25 for information leading to his whereabouts had been posted, but until today no clue had been found.

The body was discovered by small boys hunting snipers. Later it was learned that the old man had been seen to enter the orchard Sunday afternoon.

The body was identified by Dr. J. C. Bishop, 1624 Blaney, a nephew, and John Bishop of Council Bluffs, also a nephew. Brailey & Dorrance have the body now.

UNCLE SAM TO AUCTION BIG STOCK OF "NIXIES"

A motley collection of parcel post articles, for which the "nixie" department of the postoffice has been unable to find owners, will be sold at auction in the first floor corridor of the federal building April 13.

Prospective bidders will be allowed to look over the goods April 10 and 11, and when the sale begins on the following Monday morning it will be continued in charge of a professional auctioneer until everything is sold.

Among the articles to be sold are the following: silk ties, poultry supplies, books, wolf pelts, implement repairs, skunk hides, sardines, toys, harness, children brooders, chewing gum, umbrellas, tinmugs, auto lamps, squirrel tails, peacock feathers, rabbit feet, post balls, tooth picks, watches, lodge buttons, cigars, Bibles, wall paper, hair restorer, women's hosiery and lingerie, safety razors, elk teeth and dog collars.

FUNERAL OF COL. EDWARDS IS TO BE HELD TODAY

Colonel Eugene E. Edwards, who died here Monday at the age of 79 years, was a veteran of the civil war, belonging to the Sixth Iowa infantry. His services were distinguished and during the siege of Vicksburg he served as provost marshal.

Returning to Iowa, he practiced law at Charleston and was a member of the Iowa legislature. Removing later to California, he was active in politics in Santa Ana and while in the California legislature succeeded in having Los Angeles county divided, making the new county of Orange. Colonel Edwards was a member of the Grand Army of the Republic and the Loyal Legion.

He leaves two children, Mrs. Clement Chase of Omaha and LeRoy M. Edwards of Los Angeles. The funeral and interment will be private at the chapel in Forest Lawn cemetery this morning at 11 o'clock.

JAILED ONE HUNDRED DAYS FOR GIVING REDSKINS RUM

Apparently deciding that over 100 days in jail is sufficient punishment for a minor offense, the federal grand jury now in session here has returned "no bill" against Richard Wade and Ed Gilmore of Winnebago, and they have been released from custody.

They were held on the charge of introducing liquor onto the Winnebago Indian reservation and had been in jail since about Christmas time.

AFFAIRS AT SOUTH OMAHA

Magic City Business Men Oppose Move of Members Wanting to Mix in Annexation Fight.

STEAM ROLLER IN OPERATION

South Omaha business men as a body sat down for the second time on members of their body who wished to mix in the annexation subject at a meeting of the business men held Monday night.

The organization, as such, has not mixed in the annexation battle and the passage of the bill was thought to have finished the matter until it was renewed at the Monday night meeting.

Monday night meeting. Then the steam roller got busy and when it had passed the organization appeared once more as a strictly mercantile organization and not a strictly political body.

Paving Petitioner. It took exactly six signatures to get a majority to the petition to pave nine blocks of L street from Twenty-fourth to Thirty-third streets.

When completed the new horse barns on L street will have an open way from the stock yards to Twenty-fourth street. Those who signed the petition are: Magic City Realty company, the Union Stock Yards company, J. and W. H. Seagr, R. C. Strehlow, Mayevich and Vail and the Vogel Investment company.

Keeps Them Guessing. George Atkins, manager of the Beech theater, says he has been kept busy for the last two days answering inquiries as to the last installment of "The Clutching Hand."

Who do you suppose the "Clutching Hand" asked an old man of Atkins yesterday. The last installment of this play will be given today.

Roll of Honor. Prof. R. Roswell, head of the German department of the local high school, has just issued his quarterly honor roll of students at the high school.

Yontha Liberated. For the first time in years the district court has interfered with the administration of the of justice in the South Omaha police court. Several youths, said to have been convicted and sentenced to jail in the South Omaha police court because of alleged knowledge of box car robberies, have been liberated under habeas corpus proceedings in the district court.

A number of the youths who paid their fines are asking that the city remit the money. Attorneys insisted that there was not any evidence to connect the men with the charges. Judge Reed of the police court advanced the argument that the fines imposed were small, but attorneys for the defendants said that if the men were not guilty they should not be fined anything and habeas corpus proceedings followed.

Magic City Gossp. The Keno Club dance at Reisinger's hall last evening was a big success.

The Columbian club will give a dance at its hall, Thirty-sixth and R street, Friday evening.

George Glaser. Glaser was given two weeks in the city jail.

The Masca society will give a public dance at the Moose hall, Twenty-fifth and M streets, next Saturday evening. Something exclusive is being by the committee in charge for a program.

John Nannak was fined $25 and costs in the police court by Judge Reed yesterday morning for alleged assault and battery of one Mike Zerkovich on Easter Sunday afternoon. Both men were drunk, but Zerkovich was badly battered about the face and head.

E. V. Arnold, for many years a department head at the local plant of Swift and Company, has been transferred to Chicago on promotion.

The transfer of Arnold on promotion is only one of the recent switches of South Omaha men to other points where the local packers control. A year ago Cudahy sent out a number of local men to man other plants.

Then the plant of Morris & Co. was shaken up. Armour came next and Swift and Company has joined the movement.

THOUGHT "CIVIL SERVICE" STUFF R. VAN WINKLE USED

"I want to get into the civil service, no as to have a good job for life," a man said at the information window of the postoffice. "A life job sounds better to me than just working out by the week."

L. S. Mole, the clerk in charge, explained that civil service appointees secured their positions only after passing extensive examinations with high marks, and that there would be no more examinations for the postal service until next fall.

BLAZE IN WROTH'S CAFE IS SOON EXTINGUISHED

A small blaze was discovered in the kitchen of Wroth's restaurant about 4 o'clock Tuesday morning. The fire was smoldering just above the metal ceiling and had not yet gained headway to be dangerous. Not long ago they had some trouble there with a defective stovepipe. It is thought that a spark from the lodged between the ceiling and the floor above. The fire was extinguished by chemicals.

ter at Lehigh, who was killed by a shot through the window of his home last night.

A bill forbidding any restraint upon the number of apprentices in any trade was passed by the California senate, in which it originated. In debating the measure its opponents called it a device "to destroy labor unions and establish the open shop. Its advocates said it was a bill to give "the American boy a chance in life."

Richard L. Van Zandt, vice governor of the Dallas Federal Reserve bank, district No. 11, was elected governor at the monthly meeting of the board of directors. Mr. Van Zandt, who came from Fort Worth, Tex., has been acting governor since Oscar Wells resigned the governorship a month ago to become president of the First National bank of Birmingham, Ala.

Loss Of Appetite

Most Successfully Treated by Taking Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Loss of appetite is accompanied by loss of vitality, which is serious.

It is common in the spring because at this time the blood is impure and impeded and fails to give the digestive organs what is absolutely necessary for the proper performance of their functions.

Hood's Sarsaparilla, the old reliable all-year-round medicine, is especially useful in the spring. Get it from your druggist today. It purifies and enriches the blood and gives vitality, vigor and tone. It is wonderfully successful in the treatment of loss of appetite and other ailments prevalent at this time. It is not starchy or spring medicine—it is much more than that—but it is the best spring medicine.

Hood's Sarsaparilla makes the rich red blood the digestive organs need. Advertisement.
